

NEI Vista Travel Club Motorcoach River Cruise from Dubuque
Featuring the Celebration Belle

October 9, 2012 – Tuesday
Depart Decorah: 8:15 AM

Registration Deadline: September 1, 2012
Approximate return: 6:25 PM

Depart Decorah with additional pick-up stops in Calmar and Postville as we head to Dubuque to enjoy spectacular fall colors along the Mighty Mississippi while we cruise aboard the largest excursion vessel on the Upper Mississippi River, The Celebration Belle.

This 4-hour fall, Fall Foliage Cruise has been an all time favorite to many! You'll be entertained by bands that have received standing ovations with their renditions of the Big Band sounds, classic oldies, Broadway tunes, Dixieland & many more. Come hungry as you won't believe the food they will serve us, starting with their famous sticky rolls and fruit. They are delicious, and oh, the aroma will have your mouth watering. It won't be long before they serve a hot lunch buffet, all while listening to the entertainers. After lunch you'll feel like moving around. Either test out those dancing shoes, do some shopping in the gift shop or wander to one of the observations decks to check out the beautiful fall colors of the trees lining both sides of the river. You may even spot a American eagle or two. Stop by the pilot house on the 4th deck and chat with the captain. Before our cruise ends back in Dubuque, we'll enjoy an afternoon snack! Uffda, they may have to roll us off the boat when we dock after all that delicious food!

After boarding the motorcoach we stop at a local orchard for a chance to pick up some locally grown apples. We'll arrive home approximately 6:25 PM after your day of cruising along the lazy Mississippi.
